DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed 08/24/04 deleted withdrawn claims 15-36 by omission and renumbering claims 37-59; however the claims show retain the original claims numbers. This is not proper. Applicant should submit an amendment canceling claims 15-36.

Defective Reissue Oath-Declaration

2. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.175(b)(1), a new reissue oath/declaration under 37 CFR 1.175(b)(1) must be received before this reissue application can be allowed.

Claims 15-40 are rejected as being based upon a defective reissue "oath and declaration" under 35 U.S.C. 251. See 37 CFR 1.175. The nature of the defect is set forth above.

Receipt of an appropriate supplemental oath/declaration under 37 CFR 1.175(b)(1) will overcome this rejection under 35 U.S.C. 251. An example of acceptable language to be used in the supplemental oath/declaration is as follows:

"Every error in the patent which was corrected in the present reissue application, and is not covered by a prior oath/declaration submitted in this application, arose without any deceptive intention on the part of the applicant."

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 28-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Concerning claim 28, the specification does not teach only two suspension leads. Please see column 10, lines 65-67.

Concerning claims 29 and 34, the specification does not teach only two suspension leads intersecting at right angles. See column 10, lines 65-67.

Concerning claims 30, 32, 35 and 37, the terms "tetragonal shape" are not taught in the specification. See the amendment of July 6, 1995 in Patent Application.

Recapture of Cancelled Subject matter

4. Claims 37-63 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436, 221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to claim subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope of claim subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent cannot be recaptured by the filing of the present reissue.

application. Applicants have broadened/omitted certain claim requirement surrendered during prosecution of the patent in reissue (US 5,637,913). A review of the prosecution of application No. 08/311,021, which matured into US Patent No. 5,637,913, reveals that, in response to the PTO's rejection of all the claims on February 6, 1995, Applicants amended claims and argues that the claimed invention discloses unique and novel arrangement of parts, for example, arrangements wherein said chip mounting portion is smaller than a semiconductor chip attached thereto, and is positioned under a substantially central portion of the semiconductor chip, wherein the semiconductor chip is fixed to the chip mounting portion by adhesive, and wherein the semiconductor chip is fixed to a part of each of the suspension leads by adhesive, and wherein the semiconductor chip is fixed to a part of each of the suspension leads by adhesive which is located under a peripheral portion of the semiconductor chip. Further, in response to the PTO's rejection of all the claims on May 14, 1996, Applicants amended the claims and argues the suspension leads and chip mounting portion of the lead frame are continuously formed in an area of the semiconductor chip to advantageously and instrumentally maximize the area of resin contact to the semiconductor chip.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140

F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 15-40 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 37-49 of U.S.

Patent No. 09/328.910. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the limitations of claims 15-40 are substantially met in claims 37-49.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
